“ Jared, My old, dear friend. I just learned of your passing today, and I am in utter disbelief. I remember when you, Jeff Krishak, and I were still in elementary school. We called ourselves the three musketeers, and we had so much fun together. When you moved, part of me went missing. You were one of my very best friends. I was overjoyed when I got your address from my uncle, who also lived in Missouri. We wrote each other several letters over the years, and it made me feel good to know that you were, in some ways, still part of my life. When you came to PA a few years ago to work, we were supposed to get together. Our schedules never allowed us to, and I sit here now wishing more than anything I could have seen you one last time. My heart is broken. You were truly one of the most incredible, most caring people I have ever known. I am so thankful that I had you as a friend. I am so blessed to have known someone like you. You will always be my dearest childhood friend. Rest in peace. I love you.

“ Loren, Chris and family, There are no words that can express how sorry I am to hear about the loss of your son, Jared. When someone is unexpectedly taken from us, it leaves a giant whole in our hearts! I can not say that I know how you feel but I do know that there are no words that you really want to hear! Jared will always be with you in your heart and with your memories! My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during this VERY difficult time! Please keep in mind that you do have the strength to make it through this even when you think you don't! Keep in touch! I am here if you every need to talk! Again, you are Very strong people and Jared will always be your Guardian Angel! Sincerely, Brenda

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for I too know how it feels to lose someone you love. May your family find comfort as I have in knowing that others share your pain and that our loving heavenly Father promises us that very soon he will 'wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more.' (Revelation 21:4) What a wonderful day that will be!

“ Dear Lane Family, I can't tell you how sorry I am about Jared. What a great guy he was. He was always so friendly and loving. I enjoyed when he would come over to our house to hang out. He was a special freind to my son and that made him a special friend of mine. Sue Craig aka Momma Craig
