“ Jason and I met when he asked me to do a mount for his Mother. He was very excited to do this for her. He told me about himself and said his name was Racin' Jason Mason!! We shared that laugh among others as he went on to tell about his family. Such a likeable guy.
Rest In Peace my friend.

“ I had the privilege of knowing Jason from seventh grade at Schultz School through high school at Cape Central. He was funny, a cut up, especially in Biology. He tried to make the dissect frogs do peace signs. Later on in life I poured concrete with Jason. After hard work and an intensive day of listening to me, being boss lady Jason gave me a travel stroller for my new infant baby. It was red. Jason told me it survived his two kids and he wanted me to have it as a gift. I was 41 then and so was Jason. I still push that red travel stroller around with my two year old in it. It stays in the trunk of my car. I appreciate him and his tough battles, he was a strong man and very giving. Loved his children and his family. I pray that we all are full at heart for Jason, as he left us early, without pain. God bless and thank you.
