“ As one of Jean Ann's cousins I, with all of us cousins, can say that Jean with her unselfish love always had a big smile and warm welcome waiting for us. She always wanted to know how we were doing and was eager to hear. She also liked to cook for us when she could, and made awesome chicken and dumplings--will remember this forever. Judy, I know you'll miss your sister; you both love each other. Dear Dorothy and Teresa, your mother loved you deeply. I know that you will miss her full support of you, always so proud of you and wishing for you to be happy. Her greatest wish is that you be with the Lord in your heart, as I know you are. I will miss your Mom, yet she is at peace now in heaven and I am grateful for this. God bless you, as He continues to guide you in life. With much love, Ellen
