“ Chris, Jill and Tim, please accept Anna and my sympathy. I think I met your parents at Target a time or two. I know I spoke to your mother on the telephone a few times. From those times I could tell she was warm and engaging. Her love of you came through in our meetings and in how you were raised. Cherish your memories of your mother. Know that Anna and I are praying for your families that God's comfort and grace will help you through these sad days.

“ Dear Haman Family: We hope you remember the Elliotts from our "always eating out" days years ago. Jeanette was the kind of person who made everyone feel special, that's just how she treated folks. We send our thoughts and prayers to you at this most difficult time.
