“ We would like to extend our heartfelt sympathies to Cindy and all of Jeff's family. We were great friends in our younger days. Guy always enjoyed his antics and I worked (and goofed off alot) at Genevieve Bowl where we worked. Jeff always had a joke to tell and was a hard worker. He was so liked that he stood up for us at our wedding in August of 1976. So so sad to hear he's no longer here but we're comforted knowing he's with our Heavenly Father.

“ Such a great friend to me as well as everyone he met. I have so many great memories with him. One of my favorites was as young boys we would sneak over to the “Wilder” house which had been abandoned for years. He taught me how to catch pigeons in a gunny sack. We had so many laughs chasing around those darn birds.

“ My fondest memory of Jeff is when we worked at the bowling alley together. I worked the snack bar. He worked the alleys. Every night we worked together I'd fry him a hamburger. Only when he tell me how to fix it, he say," just make me a big meatloaf on a bun." I'd watch him run up and down those bowling alleys all night long. He was a good friend.

“ I am so very sorry to learn of Jeff's passing. I knew he suffered from many issues, but I was surprised still to hear that he's gone. He was such a helpful, entertaining and knowledgeable man. I know he will be greatly missed and pray that he is at peace and that his dear ones will feel God's peace and comfort.
