“Dan and I are so very sorry to hear of Jen's passing. We did not know she had been ill and were shocked at the news.

I have so many fond memories of each of you! Your mom was such a special woman and a dear friend. I was always amazed at how much she could get done and how involved she was in all your activities. I remember taking oil painting class with her in Cape when David and our son, Caleb, were about 3 or 4 years old. We painted plastic Christmas balls for decorating but we laughed so much it was difficult to get any painting done!

I hope you fill your lives with wonderful memories of your beloved mother. She was a true blessing to this world!

Sincerely,

Dan and Sherry Todd

Thank you, Dan & Sherry. I still remember Dan's last sermon at the Old Cape Road location & being mad at my Dad for singing every verse of the invitation song as I stood by my Mom's side & we cried our eyes out (along with most everyone else there). How Dan was able to keep his gentle smile & kind eyes affixed as an entire church sobbed in front of him always impressed me.

You all have been missed since.
