“ Jerry and Marlana were both dear family friends. Jerry would always tell me if he had a daughter like me he would buy me a 50 acre ranch in Wyoming while standing in front of my parents. Lol. He was always so much fun. When I would come home to visit with my kids in the summer he and Marlana would come have wine by the pool and bring a roll of quarters for the kids to dive after. So many wonderful memories with Jerry. He will be deeply missed. My heartfelt condolences to his family. We were all so fortunate to have had him in our lives.
Godspeed, Jerry Pind. Job very well done.
