

Jessie (Kay) Reavis

February 20, 2013

Jessie Katherine "Kay" Reavis, 71, of Cape Girardeau died Wednesday, Feb. 20, 2013, at her home. She was born Feb. 18, 1942, in Cape Girardeau and was the beloved daughter of Cloyd E. and Helen K. McCullough Reavis. Jessie was a manager at Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. in St. Louis for 25 years and later worked at Cracker Barrel Restaurant in Cape Girardeau for 10 years. She is survived by her two sisters, Brenda Schuetz and Linda Buchheit. She was the dear aunt to her nieces, Kelly Isringhaus, Kimberly Link and Karry Quirion. She also was the aunt to one niece, three nephews, three great-nieces, nine-great nephews and one great-great-nephew. She was preceded in death by her parents, two brothers and one nephew. There will be no services at this time. Kay was a breast cancer survivor, and in lieu of flowers, the family asks a donation be made to a breast cancer charity.

Tribute Wall

SA

“ I may not have made all the right decisions, but the good one I made because of you. I love and miss you dearly aunt Kay. You will always be my favorite! The only thing I regret is not seeing you as much as I said I would. I love you.

Steven Alier - May 12, 2015 at 12:00 AM

PR

“ Karry, Sorry for the loss of your Aunt Kay. I hope you will always remember her with a smile. May God Bless your family

Pamela Russell - December 03, 2013 at 12:00 AM

KL

“ Aunt Kay I will miss you so much I think of you everyday and I will never forget you I will never let Reilly ever forget you I will tell him about you all the time love always Kim

Kim link - December 03, 2013 at 12:00 AM

JA

“ Aunt Kay you will be missed I love you!!!!

James alier - December 03, 2013 at 12:00 AM

KA

“ Aunt Kay, I love you so much. I will miss you so much. You where the heart of our family and we will never be whole again.

Karry - November 03, 2013 at 12:00 AM