“ i was a friend of JD and we all loved him very much no matter what he did we all laugh. I remember when Jd through a paper air plane out the window and how he always slept during first hour. I wish you were here with us today and i miss you so much. You were so kind to everyone and i want you to know that i will never forget you. I looked up to you. When the teacher told me i was so in shock i didnt believe it at first and i dint want to. Just know that i looked up to your amazing personality. I wish we could just say wake up JD like we use to do during first hour but we cant and i love you so very much. There is nothing i can do now but just know this you are missed dearly.

“ JD was one of the first people to welcome my son when he started Central this year. He was a kind and funny young man that helped make the new kid feel welcome. My heart breaks for his family and you all will be in my prayers.
