“ Hello Lamkin family and friends. It's been a long time but I worked at Buckner-Ragsdale while in college at Cape. I had moved to Cape my sophomore year in high school and Buckner's was always the place to go. Your grandfather, dad and uncle made us all feel like family, especially your dad. He was like having a caring uncle around who always asked and really cared how things were going. He came to the Pub to eat with us, share stories, triumphs (which were often kid related) and concerns (also kid related) LOL. Jack made it fun to come to work and care for all who came through the doors. What fun we all had coming in each day with Wade waiting in shoes to say hello! I remember the day that Clayton was "lost" and then found in the attic at the house. Such adventures! One of my favorite memories is when Po and Jack came to my wedding in Anna IL on a not too convenient day, the day after Christmas. The Wade's were all there too and other Buckner family members as well. It was so kind of them to come out of their way to celebrate with us. While Joe is no longer with us either, I know that he treasured Jack's friendship when we later lived in Cape and Joe was in Rotary while he worked at Medical Arts Pharmacy with Kenny Mehrle. Jack served as a mentor and a true example of what everyone should be, kind, thoughtful and welcoming. My heart goes out to all of you, especially the grands and great grands. You did a great job on the such an entertaining obit and representing the true Jack.

Sincerely,
Holly Derickson Wohlwend

“ One of the high points of my life in high school was coming down to coffee in the morning to Jack and Po holding court at the kitchen table. Mostly I remember Po talking and Jack and the rest of us laughing at her comments. Those were wonderful times.

Later, when I came home and Dad had made a comment that had ended the friendship those were empty times at the breakfast table. Particularly, since I never lost my love for your mother and father. Like my father I am always trying to play the comedian, so I understand what happened and doubt there was any malice.

One story, I was doing 80 with my date on the way to a basketball game in Dexter in the blue station wagon. Your dad and my father were right behind me in your green station wagon (they looked the same in the dark), We both got pulled over within 30 yards of each other. Although I don't think your Dad was going as fast as I was, we got to the game and we had a huge laugh when I told him I got a warning and he got a ticket. Being your Dad he laughed as much as the rest of us.

As I said before, I loved your mother and father. I printed out Po's obituary and enjoyed telling my friends about the burial of the most politically incorrect person in Cape Girardeau county. They were both very special.
