

John Moore

August 8, 2008

John Moore, 53, of Cape Girardeau went home to be with the Lord Friday, Aug. 8, 2008. He was born Oct. 2, 1954, in Hickman, Ky., to Harold B. and Dula Mai Ray Moore. He and Kristine Barkiage were married June 27, 1981. A graduate of Scott City High School, John was a hard-working, dedicated provider for his family. He worked as a riverboat deckhand in the construction industry and most recently for Alliance Water Resources. John was an active member of Cape Bible Chapel, where he participated and served in several ministries. John had many practical skills and abilities and was willing to use those talents to help those in need. Survivors include his wife, Kristine Moore; three sons, Jason Moore, Adam Moore and Clayton Moore, all of Cape Girardeau; three brothers, Harold (Mary) Moore of Cape Girardeau, Bob (Mary Bell) Moore and David Moore, both of Scott City; and a sister, Barbara Dempsey. He was preceded in death by his parents and a brother, Billy. He was a beloved uncle of many nieces and nephews. Visitation will be 3 to 7 p.m. Sunday, August 10, 2008 at Cape Bible Chapel. A funeral service to celebrate John's life will be at 10 a.m. Monday, August 11, 2008 at Cape Bible Chapel. The Rev. Dan Greene will be officiating. Entombment will be in Cape County Memorial Park Mausoleum. In lieu of flowers the family encourages donations to be made in John's memory to Southeast Hospice, 10 Doctors Park, Cape Girardeau, Mo., 63703.
