“ My son Johnathan was larger than life. He touched so many lives and was loved by almost all that had the gift of knowing him. There were few that didn't but even they respected him. He was the most fearless person I've ever known and he certainly lived life on his terms and nobody else's. He had a heart of gold and bigger than texas if you ever got to see past the sometimes gruff exterior. It's been 3 1/2 years now and I'm still so lost without my son. I love you always and forever my baby boy!
