“ Mary, I am so sorry I couldn't be at your Mom's memorial today. I haven't been feeling well and it just caught up with me. Just know I was with you in spirit. You know what your Mom meant to me in just the short time I was with her. She is one lady that I will never forget.....she inspired me & made my life better for having known her. Thank you for sharing her with me. May God bless & comfort you in the days to come.

“ There will never be another Christmas from this time forward when we will not feel a little saddened at loseing Aunt Joyce. But death is a part of her time to shine, she was ready and wanted to go home to be with Grandpa, Grandma, Uncle Dub, my Mother and Aunt Novella, as well as Mark and Carolyn. As the song goes "I'll Be Home for Christmas". I know in my heart that she is now happy.....

“ Dearest Aunt Joyce, although we will miss your generous smile I am confident you were given a warm welcome into heaven and are now watching over us right next to Grandma & Aunt Novella. Love you.

“ Mary, Your Mother was my friend at K-mart in Euless, Tx. She was there for me so many times. I have fond memories of that time and of the times we got together after the store closed. To me she was always a good and strong person. I know that in my heart she is in a better place. But, my heart also have a big hole in it right now. I will miss her dearly. Take care of yourself. I loved you Joyce my friend.

“ Mary, it will be the little things you will remember, the quiet moments, the smiles, and the laughter. Although, it may seem hard right now, it will be the memories of these little things that help ease away the pain and bring the smiles back again. We thought a great deal of you Mother. With Loving Memories of Joyce!

“Marybeth, just remember she is with you everyday. You will miss her so much but it will be little things that will remind you of her daily a funny joke a smart comment someone makes or even just a smile a smell and you'll smile to yourself and think that's my mom just letting me know she is with me. since mom died i really tried to stay in touch with aunt joyce i will miss her dearly. If you just want to talk feel free to call me at any time. love you, angie”

“ My Dear Sister Mary, I wish so much that I could be there for you and Jimmy. Please know that we are always together in our hearts. Find comfort in knowing your Mom will not suffer anymore and be happy knowing you had the last few years being closer to her than ever before. I still can't believe she wanted to give "ME" her anklet and was proud of you for our friendship. She did have a heart! I will always remember her because you and I have been great friends forever and always will be. Love you, take care of yourself and try to get away so we can laugh and cry together while we reminisce.
