

Joyce Marie Holloway

She was born August 17, 1932 in Cape Girardeau, daughter of Reginald and Ersie Nichols. She and Eugene Holloway were married on February 24, 1951 in Cape Girardeau. She was a 1950 graduate of Central High School.

She was deeply loved by her husband, children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

She was a faithful follower of Christ from a young age. She was a founding and long-time member of Lynwood Baptist Church. Over the many years she was active with VBS, youth, senior adults and teaching her Life Group Class.

She helped us all create lots of memories over the years and she reminded us all the time that no matter how good or bad it was, we were building memories. She will always be remembered for summer camps with grandkids, apple pies, Swedish tea ring, awesome family dinners, always singing a gospel song around the house, playing the piano, her deep devotion to her husband and family and above all her love of her Savior, Jesus Christ.

She also loved to quilt and poured a lot of love into making quilts for her children and grandkids. She was a member of the River Heritage Quilt Guild and the Bootheel Quilters Guild.

Survivors include her three sons, David (Candy) Holloway of Flagstaff Arizona, Kerry (Kelly) Holloway of Cape Girardeau, Lance (Lynne) Holloway of Jackson; one daughter, Valarie (Ted) Matthews of Spring Hill, Tennessee; daughter-in-law, Marsha (Eugene, Jr., deceased) Holloway; and one sister, Melba Masterson of Tennessee.

“ I am Archie Aydt’s daughter, Beth Pace. We met your mom many years at the Chateau and fell in love with her. She was such a loving and sharing lady. She recently gave me a recipe for pumpkin cookies.

Just wanted you all to know your mom and I were also Bingo buddies. She loved it!!

We will do a memorial for her to the Lynwood Baptist Church “Youth Scholarship camps/mission.”

“ I enjoyed so much visiting with Joyce at Chateau. What a wonderful prayer warrior she was for me! Before Chateau we enjoyed worshipping together and sharing our love of quilting talks. I especially remember a trip to the National Quilt Show with Joyce! She and Eugene were precious friends of mine and my husbands. She will definitely be missed in my life. Now she can be with the love of her life, Eugene. Love and prayers to all the family.
