“ What a loving, caring lifelong friend Joyce has been to me since meeting in college. There was the courtship with Tom and I was blessed to be one of her bridesmaids. Joyce had picked out pastel rainbow colors and I got yellow. After the wedding the receiving line was outdoors in the grass. My dress was the only color to attract little black bugs that got caught in between the top see-through layer and the taffeta underskirt! How embarrassing! But a beautiful wedding! Another memory is of when Tom, you and Joyce would come to visit me in Nashville. So much fun! And Caleb and Alicia, I remember when each of you were babies. You both were the joy of her life. Tom, I know you are really going to miss Joyce, but she will always be there with you in your heart and one day you will see her again. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Love, Norma Engelhardt

“ Joyce was a kind presence many years ago when she was one of the "big kids" on the Oran school bus and again, years later, when she was the librarian at Notre Dame and I began working there. May God reward her faith and many acts of thoughtfulness.
