

Juanita Elizabeth Miskell

May 27, 2011

Juanita Elizabeth Miskell, 90, of Cape Girardeau, MO, died Friday, May 27, 2011 at Ratliff Care Center. She was born November 26, 1920 in Morley, MO to Alfred and Elva Graves Bryant . She and Robert Miskell Jr. were married June 3, 1944 in Arkansas. He died January 24, 2001. Mrs. Miskell graduated from Southeast Missouri State University in May 1948 and taught school in Commerce, Portageville, Cape Girardeau, Sikeston and Scott City, Missouri, retiring September of 1977. She was a member of Missouri Teacher Association and Order of the Eastern Star. Survivors include; Sons - John R. (Cathy) Miskell, Cape Girardeau, MO and David L. (Cindy) Miskell, Munford, TN 5 grandchildren and 1 great-grandchild, She was preceded in death by Parents, Husband, Brother and Sister. Private services will held at Oakdale Cemetery in Commerce, Missouri Memorial contributions may be given to Alzheimer's Association or American Diabetes Association Ford & Sons Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

KW

“ John and Family, I'm so sorry to read of your mother's passing. May God lift you up and be of comfort during this time.

Kathy Wallis - May 12, 2015 at 12:00 AM

BM

“ To Mrs Miskell's Family: She was my first grade teacher at Scott City. She was so good to me. I remember crying a lot when I first started to school and she would put me on her lap and hold me and talk to me. Never will forget her. My prayers and sympathy go out to you all. God Bless each and everyone of you. Love Betty McFall

Betty McFall - May 12, 2015 at 12:00 AM

GS

“ John, Cathy and family: We are sorry for the loss of your Mother but know that she is in a better place and with your Dad now. Take care of yourselves.

Gary and Jane Stanley - May 12, 2015 at 12:00 AM

BK

“ John, Sorry on the loss of your mother.

Brad Krauss - May 12, 2015 at 12:00 AM