“ I'm glad I got to visit with Her back in 2020 reliving some memories and forming new ones. Spread those wings Jurea and give Bill, Grandma, Mom, and Dad a hug from us all.

“ *My thoughts are with the family. Jurea and I shared many memories as class sponsors, especially with the class of 1974. As memories of the fine arts department, many moments including painting the bass drum heads for the marching band and adopting red in the school colors of black and white. She never said anything negative and cared for all she knew.
May she rest in peace.*
