“ We are so sorry to read about the passing of your Mom. 🙏🏻
We were Rotary friends and I served with your Dad at the Habitat of Humanity Board for several years. Sweet folks, your parents. As Paul got sick and couldn't drive anymore did your Mom bring him to the meeting and I drove him home and visited with both. We had such nice conversations. It was a big job for your Mom to be the caregiver. No one knows till the are a caregiver how much it is and take every thing.
It was sad as your Dad passed that we were out of town. And all sudden your Mom was moved and we lost the connection, since we didn't know where she went.
Be assured that your parents are now together and happy again.
We pray for your peace in your hearts. 🙏🏻🌈❤️🏻
