“ I have lots of fun memories with Kate, being her classmate at KCU. I will always remember her as the sweetest, positive, and hardworking person. Kate was smart and so fun to be around. I loved studying with her at Panera and at school. I remember during one of our study sessions, we took a mental break, turned up the music, and jammed to it. she was also strong in her faith, which helped build mine up as well. Kate will always have a special place in my heart. Rest in peace, my dear friend. I love and miss you.

Condolences to the Loos family. I can't imagine how difficult it must be for you all. Please take care.

“ We are so very sorry to hear about Kate...I didn't know her very well, but several years ago, I would see her at Health Point gym quite often and she was always very sweet and friendly to those around her. I was in several gym classes with her, as well. We are keeping your family in our prayers and are so sorry for your loss.

“ Kenny & Joyce, we cannot begin to tell you how sorry we are about your loss of Kate. She was such a wonderful person and we have nothing but the best memories of her as she grew up and went to school with our Josh. We are so sorry that we cannot be with you for the visitation and funeral but we are vacationing in Alabama with all of Kim's family (33 of us). May almighty God comfort you and strengthen your faith during this most difficult time, and please know that we have been praying as a family for all of you, and will continue to do so. May Kate rest in the everlasting peace that only our Lord and God can provide.

“ In The Arms

By

Gabriel G Gonzalez

*When I came into this world
I was shaking for all to see
But then I was placed
In the arms of the one who loves me*

*The days came, and the days went
And you never left me
I started to look forward to being held
In the arms of the one who loves me*

*The doctors are buzzing
They're talking with my family
Suddenly they can't wait to put me
In the arms of the one who loves me*

*Daddy's always smiling
He can't wait to get kisses from me
He picks me up and I'm happy to be
In the arms of the one who loves me*

*There's something going on here
Darkness has come and I can't see
Oh my Lord, I so long to be
In the arms of the one who loves me*

*Daddy kisses me one last time
Mommy's arms enfold around me
They say they have to put me back
In the arms of the one who loves me*

*He says that there's no sadness here
That I can run and jump pain free*

*Mommy and Daddy I can't wait for the day that I'm back
In the arms of the one who loves me*

“ Kenny and Joyce,

I was deeply saddened to hear about Kate 's passing. Words will not ease your pain, but know that I am thinking of you and the family. I will always remember the short time she lived with us and the very special relationship her and I developed. She matched my level of sarcasm and I loved it. She was loved and will be missed. God bless.

“ Kenny & Joyce,

I'm so very sorry for loss. Although I hadn't had the pleasure of meeting Katie, I felt I knew her through her father's caring eyes and words.

You two are the role model for what every parent could only hope to be.

May you find strength through your faith and family in the weeks and months ahead.

Love and prayers,
