

Kathryn "Katie" Taylor

June 23, 2013

Kathryn "Katie" A. Taylor went to be with her Lord on Sunday June 23, 2013. She was born March 21, 1930 to Leslie Eldon and Flossie Willie Mainer. She spent most of her life as a homemaker, but did work for a number of years at the Coca Cola Bottling Co in Cape and at Wibb's Drive In in Jackson. She loved to go fishing, gardening, and sew, but she got the most joy by being with her grandchildren. She was a member of Maple United Methodist Church and was married to William E. "Slug" Taylor in Piggott, Ark. June 18, 1948. He preceded her in death on January 1, 2011. She is survived by two sons, Terry (Tricia) of Grain Valley, Mo., and Steve (Phyllis) of Grand Junction, Colo. She also had five grandchildren, Chris Taylor (Kellie) of Jackson, Sara Taylor of Cape, Tyler LaPlaunt of North Hollywood, Calif., Britney Taylor of Grand Junction, Jessica Peete of Grand Junction, and six great-grandchildren. She is also survived by two sisters, Carmen Hoffman of Cape, Maxine (Bill) Hatler of Jackson, two brothers, Jerry (Earla) Mainer of Granite City, Ill., Leslie (Madge) Mainer of Murphysboro, Ill. She was preceded in death by a brother, Delbert "Pete" Mainer of McClure, Ill. Visitation will be from 4:00 to 8:00 pm on Tuesday June 25 at the Ford & Sons Funeral Home Mount Auburn location. Funeral service will be conducted by the Rev. Rob Mehner at 10:00 AM on Wednesday June 26 at the funeral home followed by a graveside service at Lindsey Cemetery in McClure Ill. The family asks in lieu of flowers that donations be made to the Maple United Methodist Church Building Fund or Southeast Hospice.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for I too know the pain of losing someone as special as a mom. May your family find comfort as I have in knowing that our loving heavenly Father promises us that very soon he will 'swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces.' (Isaiah 25:8) What a wonderful day that will be!
