“ I stopped by the nursing home a little over a year ago just to see if he remembered me, I was standing next to him in the cafeteria when they pointed him out to me. I didnt recognize him and neither him me. We visited a bit. And he thanked me for visiting with him. Even though our relationship didn't end well. I prefer to remember some of the teen years antics and some of the fun times we had.

Yes. I was driving by and had a few minutes to spare so I stopped by. Been meaning to see him again but didn't have the opportunity. I informed Teri as well. Have no idea what happened to Joyce. Last I heard Randy Spootswood lived in Columbia. I was wondering if he told any family that I stopped by for a visit.

Houston, with his short term memory loss, he unfortunately forgot you were there by the time you left town. I'm so glad to hear you visited. I was basically his only visitor. Kevin and family obviously when in town. Occasionally someone from the Guard in Jeff. And a cousin who lived in Cape. So, thank you.
