“ So saddened to hear of Kennys passing. I will always remember our last visit, and am so glad that we were given that opportunity. At the time we would have never imagined that it would be our last time together as friends. Deepest condolences to the family.

“ Diane, I only learned of Ken's passing when reading today's West Plains newspaper. I am grateful for the last dinner we shared and will keep in memory all the good times the 3 of us shared so many years ago. So sorry for your loss.

“ Diane, so sorry to learn of Ken's death. He and I used to laugh and laugh when he was at Print It Press. I have always been grateful to him for helping me so much and pulling me out of so many fires at SEMO.

“ I can't come to Ken's memorial service, but I want you to know how fond I was of him. I worked with Ken at the Southeast Missourian in the 1970s. He was a welcoming presence to this young reporter, inviting me to play poker with the boys at his house and to bowl on his team. I'll remember his humor and his laugh, and the way he soldiered through no matter what. Bless him and your family.
