“ Ken & Mary were my “adoptive parents” when I was at school at SEMO from 1989-1991 while attending Red Star Baptist. They hosted The Morgan Feast for BSUsers like me and many a Sunday lunch, where Mary was a fabulous cook! One time my car broke down while in Cape and Ken helped me get it to a shop, plus fronted me the money until my parents could send him a check. Myself and others sat in on his SS teaching, as well. We kept in touch through the years off and on. They attended a baby shower in STL for our newly adopted son in 2004. John and I went down to visit them in 2012 when we were in STL for my father in law’s funeral, too. They were both such a blessing to me and I’m so glad Ken is reunited with Mary and other loved ones. Surely God said, “Well done, my food and faithful servant!”

Ken and Mary were a sweet blessing to my twin sister and I during our time at SEMO. We met them at Red Star Baptist Church and Ken was our Sunday School teacher. He loved God’s Word and years later sent my husband, Keith, and I many of his teaching notes on those square hard drives. Ken helped my sister and I replace a tire on an old Dodge Colt we were driving and insisted on covering the cost. We enjoyed the food and fellowship at several of the Morgan Feasts, too. As an older couple in the church they sure did a lot to bless young people and model Christ’s love to us. We’re praying for their family during this time. God comfort you and give you His perfect peace.
