“ Kenny was my buddy. He was such a wonderful brother. He kept me and my hot temper out of trouble more than once growing up. I remember one day at school a person (who will remain unnamed) shoved me aside and cut in front of me at the water fountain. I paid him back by slamming his head into the water fountain. Just as he was about to turn around and kill me, there was Kenny telling him he'd better not touch me. Then he pulled me aside and gave me a verbal berating like none other. Kenny was fair, he was loving and compassionate. He truly cared about people for who they were. This world is lesser for his passing and there will always be a whole left in my heart. “ Kenny was in my grade at the Elsinore High School. He was the nicest person you could ever meet. There are very few people that you will meet in this world that was as compassionate and always thought of others first. I consider it an honor that God allowed me to know someone as kind as him. He knew my husband Gary house well. He died last year. I am sure Gary will greet him when he arrived in heaven. Thank you Kenny 4 the good memories I have of you. Your friend Jennifer Tipton house
