“ Seeing Kenny over Christmas brought back high school and college memories. Its hard to believe and accept that Kenny is no longer with us. Know that our Father in Heaven is wrapping his arms around the Schlegel family with love and passion. His strength will get you through this difficult time. Though I can't be there for you now, know that my heart goes out to you and you are in my prayers. Old friend, you will be truly missed.

“ What precious memories! I'll never forget the bald head, Mr. DePinna. You liked it so much that you couldn't pass up Pappy Yokum! For a quiet boy you proved to be a powerful actor! To see him find joy in drama was a highlight of my teaching. What a joy to have worked with Kenny in high school! He was such a respectful and mild-mannered boy...a tribute to his parents for sure. My prayers are with the family. Words can not adequately express what he meant to me.
