“ Tina: Scott was like a son to me. He would call me at least once a week to see how I was doing, and if I needed anything. He was always here for me. When he needed someone to talk to, he would call me and ask my advice, and I was always glad to help, out. I will miss him so much. In the few years I knew him, he had become my best friend. It won't be the same without him. I hope that if you need anything, or just someone to talk to, you will call me. Love you, Karl

“ While we have not met you, Tina, we knew Scott and know how much he loved you. I, Brian, in particular, came to know Scott as a true friend. We talked together about our spouses on several occasions. He was a member of my morning text group which is a vital part of my daily routine to touch base with those who keep me grounded and focused on what the important things in life are. Scott was the man many aspire to be and I am forever grateful to have met him and call him my friend. Peace and love to you and all who love Scott.
