“ KEVIN was always ready to help others. I remember one snowy night a granddaughter of mine and two of her friends drove on a snowy and driff packed field road. They called after getting stuck. My husband had medical problems and unable to go help them. Kevin volunteered to rescue the girls. He was not from our area and didn't know his surrounding but didn't hesitate to go to the girls aid. Kevin was a kind, helpful man. So sorry for his family. Phyllis and all the kids and grandkids, he will be greatly missed.

“ Kevin & I went jug fishing one night at Wappelo lake. We chased gallon milk jugs all over the lake that night. Long about 5:00 AM on Sunday morning we saw a jug swimming along the bank. We went to it. It was the only bite we had all night. When we finally landed it. Only to discover it was a 30+ pound Flathead Catfish. We hung it up in my shop with my front end loader to clean it. He took half & I took half.

Rest in peace old Friend!
