“ We met Kimmie when she was 4_yes old. She lived in our neighborhood and she and my daughter; Cortney; became fast friends. So much fun and laughter. We would always play badminton and they would ride their bikes. Then came kindergarten and before we knew it H.S.. Kim was always such a bright light in our lives. With her sweet smile, beautiful eyes and just a pure gentle kindness. I could go on and on....she is now with our Father in heaven and out of her suffering. May God be with Sam and Olivia; her dad Jon and brother and the rest if their family. Heaven has truely gained a beautiful angel! Fly high sweet girl!
