

Kimette Lee DeCota

August 28, 2014

Kimette Lee DeCota, 57, of Jackson, Missouri died Thursday, August 28, 2014 at the Life Care Center of Cape Girardeau. She was born November 4, 1956 in Highland, IL to Duane Curtis and Evelyn M. Gerstenecker DeCota. She graduated from Sikeston High School in 1974 and was a resident of Cape Girardeau for the last 30 years. Kim is known for many things. She was a dedicated and loving daughter, mother, sister, and friend, who had a passion for life and everything it had to offer. It would be difficult to simply describe Kim, because she was many things for many people. She had a knack for opening her arms and adopting you in whatever way you needed. She gave everything the highest possible effort, exuberance, and love. Whether it was cooking meals for church, helping her parents in the kitchen and garden, playing cards and taking vacations with friends, or travelling to visit her children and grandchildren, she always wanted to give more. She was a dedicated member of Westminster Presbyterian Church of Cape Girardeau, MO, where she was active in everything; cooking, missions, youth groups, and Bible School, just to name a few. Her faith, her church, and her church family were some of the most important things in Kim's life. She lived her faith every day, and everyone that knew her benefitted from that blessing. For some, Kim is known as the Lite Lady. For 25 years, she was a talented Lighting Consultant for DeCota Electric Supply in Cape Girardeau. She made her way through the community as a designer, confidant, and friend. More than anything, she loved meeting new people and bringing light into their lives.

Some of her very best friends began as her customers. Kim's true passion was her family. On Sunday afternoons, you could find her in Sikeston spending quality time with her parents, siblings, nieces and nephews. She never missed an opportunity to see one of her numerous cousins, aunts, and uncles, who she loved dearly. Her closest friends were also her family that experienced her love on a daily basis. Above all, Kim was an unbelievable mother, who never stopped caring for and talking about her children and grandchildren. Her kids are her love personified. Survivors include her parents; Duane Curtis & Evelyn M. DeCota of Sikeston, her son - Phillip C. Davidson, wife Natalie, and expecting grandchild of Atlanta, GA, her daughter - Carolyn R. OzVath, husband Christopher Shubert, and grandchildren Keyven and Trenten of Midwest City, OK. She is also survived by her siblings, Quentin C. DeCota of Cape Girardeau, Michelle D. Wilson, Burdette J. DeCota and wife Laura, and Monique J. Rice and husband Stephen, all of Sikeston. Visitation will be from 4:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. on Sunday, August 31, 2014 at Ford & Sons Mt. Auburn Chapel in Cape Girardeau and again Monday at Westminster Presbyterian Church from 9:00 a.m. until the time of service. Funeral service will be at 11:00 a.m. Monday, September 1, 2014 at Westminster Presbyterian Church in Cape Girardeau with the Rev. Karen Dumey officiating. Burial will be at Cape County Memorial Park Cemetery in Cape Girardeau. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to a memorial fund at Westminster Presbyterian Church. They can be made by going to this website: <http://www.youcaring.com/nonprofits/memorial-fund-for-kimette-decota/226652>.

“ Cathy and I were shocked and deeply saddened to hear about Kim's sudden passing. As members of her "Northern cousins", we didn't have the pleasure of seeing her often, but when we did, we made the most of our visits. Kim's family is very dear to us, and we can imagine how hard it is for them at this very sad time. Our sincere sympathy to you all. As others have so eloquently stated, Heaven will be brighter with a very special angel.

“ Words cannot express the sadness and heartbreak we feel in this time of great loss. Kim was our cousin, our friend, our "Little Opal", and to me, the sister I never had. As the late great St. Louis Cardinal announcer Jack Buck would say "So long for just a while". We love you Kimmy.....and what a reunion it will be when we meet again some day! God has indeed gained an angel.

“ Dear parents, brothers, Monique, Phillip and Caroline. I am saddened and grieving along side you and I am not there. Our thoughts and prayers for all of you continue daily, and I personally will never let Kim's spirit and passion surrender to the past. Phillip and Caroline, your mom and I always talked about you and my daughter. Business may have brought us together, but our children kept us together. It is truly what we lived for! I know you understand this as her support for you was unwavering. How blessed and lucky you were and the many of us who shared her joy and love for everything and everyone around her. I will miss our talks and our business meetings, but her Light will never be missed by anyone. Our faith in GOD will reunite all of us one day. In Love Mickey Majchrzak

“ Dear DeCota Family, I am so very sorry for your loss. I enjoyed getting to know Kim this past year as she helped design the lights for our new home. Your lovely obituary was correct. I did feel as if we became friends as we worked together. Kim was professional, sensible, but fun. My contractor had me shop and compare prices for flooring, cabinets, etc. but he sent me straight to Kim because he had such respect for her. The electricians did also. When all the dust had settled from our move I had planned to send her flowers to thank her for all her help. I am so very sorry I didn't have the chance. I am so sad for all of you. Sincerely, Janet Rueseler

“ Kim, You were always a delight to be around and you had such a great smile, contagious laugh and a wonderful personality. We had many laugh about the postman mixing up our mail since our names were the same and we only live 2 blocks apart. God bless you you FOUGHT a tough battle still wearing your bright lipstick. You will be missed! YOU'RE flying with the Angels now RIP God Bless.
