“ One of Lana’s dreams was to one day have a homestead of her own with a few animals and a big garden. She loved canning and freezing her own food, and had even thought about opening a stand at the Farmer’s market to sell fresh organic produce. I especially love that the last couple of months her smiles were getting bigger and more often. I’m sorry there wasn’t more time.

Oh Lana, I still cannot believe you are gone! I regret not sending you a message recently telling you how happy you look and how wonderful you must feel! This is just so unfair. Honey im so sorry this world is so wicked. But I know you are safely resting peacefully in the arms of Jesus. This life is only temporary and i have comfort ib knowing that you will never have to suffer again. Beautiful Lana , inside and out, My heart is breaking and tears are flowing for the pain you had in this life and for your family's pain. I should have stayed in contact more with you. I went to your FB and read all your last messages. I can see your love for the Lord and know you are now experiencing His truly perfect Love for you, seeing His Face and enjoying His special place for you in Heaven. I am praying for the Lord Jesus to touch your family with His love, faith, forgiveness, healing and peace in all your lives. I will hold on to the many wonderful memories I have of Lana, Sara Bohnert

Zack, Gabby, Hanna, Glory, and Ellie, you were Lana's whole life here on earth. There wasn't a single time that we talked that she wasn't thinking of ever one of you. She only wanted the best for you. She especially wanted to make sure you know how much Jesus loves you. He WILL turn your tragedy into triumph if you let Him. That is her desire for you. She was so proud of you!
