“ Laura told it like it was. I spent many nights with her and Rocky down on Main Street. Music always playing in the background of our talks. I thought about her alot of the years. She was a great comfort to me during the flood of 95. My heart pours out love for her children and grandchildren.

“ Laura and I met at the baseball fields. She never missed her grandsons games, school programs, or anything that they were involved in. She was the kind of grandma that inspired me. She was sweet and funny, and it was a pleasure to know her. The consistency and security and love that she showed her grandchildren will forever remain in their hearts. She will live on in their hearts and memories. It is so hard to lose a loved one. I believe Laura is dancing with Jesus. Rest In Peace. Deepest Regards, Amanda Side's
