“ I remember your mother so well and I always enjoyed her sense of humor. I always knew when "Eenie" and her relatives were close by because of the raucous laughter! There was so much joy in the room when she and they were together. I am thinking of all of you and wishing you love and peace.

“ John, I am so sorry on the loss of your beloved wife. Seeing you in church every morning and knowing you would visit her so often just proves to me you are a faith-filled man who loved her very much. You and your family will be in my prayers as you struggle through this difficult time. God has called her home and she is in peace. May God bless you with the peace and understanding of His will.
