“ Charlie, So Sorry to read about your mother's passing. I remember sitting out in your yard in the summer of 1979 and talking with your mother. She recounted how she did not like the iodine her mother put on her wonds but laughed that she did enjoy the attention the "orange" coloring brought her. She was truely delightful....Riding home that night I asked my mom why she never wore her hair with a bun on the side of her head like your mom wore....Mom commented that only women with really pretty faces could pull that off...and we both agreed that was your mother. Please give my best to Burt and the boys. Claudia
