“ I am so sorry I cannot come to the visitation or the funeral however wanted to share a few words about this sweet, sweet lady. In the past years, my sisters and I sang in churches around the area and later in years, the Fortner Family after I married. This lady I have known all of my life was always soooo appreciative of young people serving the Lord. She always had such kind words to say. My sisters and I are no longer young and my sons are not teenagers any longer but she will never know how much it meant to me growing up to know someone made me feel so special and made an impact on my life. Lately (actually on December 10th) she sat behind me at the Monticello House Christmas party and still knew me, frustrated because she could not get around like she always had but still so very kind to me.....one very sweet, classy lady! I'm praying for you all!
