“ I will miss you Leo, and our Cardinal talks, and Pujols banter. I know I will see you again one day in Heaven, and what a glorious day that will be. I am a better person for having met you and your wonderful loving wife.

“ The pain of losing someone you love is something that we will never get use to because God's Word refers to death as 'the last enemy.' May your family find comfort as I have in knowing that our loving heavenly Father promises us that very soon he will see to it that our enemy is 'brought to nothing.' (1Corinthians 15:26) What a wonderful day that will be!

“ We are sad to hear that Uncle Leo has passed away. I have many memories of Arlis, Leo and the rest of the family on the farm growing up. One of the reasons I grew a garden for the first time in my life this year was directly related to those valuable lessons from family. Leo will be missed but never forgotten.
