“ My sister Clede and I have so many fond memories of visits to our favorite aunt and uncle's in Dutchtown. Of course, the adventures we had with our 4 cousins, "the boys", made the trips so much fun. Memories of fishing, walking to Slaughters' for an RC and a Moon Pie, sliding down the hill toward Hubble Creek on cardboard, playing in the hogpen, walking the trestle and a number of other not so safe things still bring smiles to our faces. We were so grateful that "the boys" put up with us city girls. We didn't know that "Junior's" real name was Leon until we were much older. The few times we've gotten together with Junior and the rest of the family since we've grown up were full of joyful reminiscing. Junior had a smile that went on forever, a laugh like no other and cousins who adored him. How much he looked like our favorite Uncle Leon and our wonderful daddy. Oh, how they all must be grinning with dear Aunt Hilda!
With love and prayers from Cousin Lana Stevens

“ I worked with Leon at spartech plastics for 11 years, he was always a great guy with a greater attitude, always happy, and friendly. I remember Leon always encouraging me to quit smoking.
So sorry for your loss, he will be missed.

“ Mary,

I just got e-mail from Lyndel that your husband had gone to be with God. I know I haven't seen you since high school, but I was saddened by your loss. You and your family are in my prayers.
