

Leonard A. LaCroix, Jr.

May 25, 1931 - February 27, 2016

Leonard A. LaCroix, Jr., 84, of Jackson, Missouri died Saturday, February 27, 2016 at Life Care Center of Cape Girardeau in Cape Girardeau, Missouri.

He was born May 25, 1931 in Sikeston, MO to Leonard A. and Desiree M Bridges LaCroix Sr.

He and Patricia Mae Thomas LaCroix were married September 04, 1965 at San Leandro, California. She preceded him in death on September 7, 2011 in Athens, TX. He is survived by his only daughter, Brenda, who was born May 9, 1969. Len was a committed, loving husband and dad until the day he passed.

Len served in the Air Force from January 5, 1951 to December 9, 1954, which led to his lifelong love of airplanes.

Len was a dedicated employee as lead maintenance mechanic for United Airlines in San Francisco, retiring after 40 years of service. After retirement, Len and Pat moved from California to Nebraska to help his in-laws build up their community, and then on to Texas where they both volunteered at a local community theater. After the passing of his wife, Len decided he wanted to move home and came back to Jackson, MO., with his daughter, Brenda. He was a member of three bowling leagues and volunteered at the Senior Center in Jackson.

He was a member of Immaculate Conception Church in Jackson, Missouri and a devoted Catholic his entire life.
