“ Linda is my mother. I am deeply sadden by losing the best mother anyone would of been blessed to of had. I find myself torn, and not able to breathe, I literally feel like I'm suffocating. She was my whole world. The only family I really had. She always had my back...And for that my dear mom, I will always remember how you saved me, many, many times. Now I have no one...You will be missed and I love you so, so much..!!

“ I've known Linda for many years and considered her a great employee and a dear friend. We worked together for many years and became good friends. Linda and my ex-wife were good buddies who enjoyed giving me a hard time but all in fun. Her sense of humor and energy were the signature traits which made her the enjoyable person she was. Linda also possessed a great love for her family and close friends which defined her true spirit. I will always hold fond memories of Linda and will miss her dearly until the day we meet again. To her family, May your grief be short while your fond memories continue far into the future. Godspeed Linda, You will be missed and loved by many for all time. Carl Bryant
