“ Linda, Sue and I were raised together. As cousins during the war, Nany's house was home. Sue was always getting Linda and I in trouble. That's my story and I'm sticking to it. I loved our time together this summer. Thank you Rodney. Cousin Sherry

“ You will be greatly missed girl, but we take comfort in knowing where you are at, in the arms of the Lord Jesus. Our thoughts and prayers are with Rodney and family and we pray God strengthen each of you in love for one another! This is a home going, she is free of pain now and will be waiting to greet each of you someday. Be blessed!

“ As teenagers Linda and I loved the show "Route 66" with Tod and Buz. We dreamed of the day we would get a car and travel. Life had different plans for us but we were still talking about it just a couple of years ago. Someday in a beautiful place I'm sure there will be a Route 66 for us to fulfill our dreams.

Love to Linda's family. You had a very good person in your life.
