Linda Faye Wood McCoy, 80, of Cape Girardeau, Missouri returned to her Heavenly Father on Saturday, April 27, 2024, after a valiant and short battle with cancer. Her devotion to her family members and friends and her firm belief in God supported her in her struggle and ultimately gave her peace.

Wade (Tina) Wood of Sikeston, Missouri; two sisters, Brenda (Marion) Pearson of Sikeston, Missouri and Ramona Jean (Markel) Fitchpatrick of Blodgett, Missouri; a sister-in-law, Marva A. Wood of Buckner, Missouri; and one truly beautiful friend, Betty Lowery of Cape Girardeau.

Faye had many great friends, and her friendships encompassed all aspects of life, and each was special to her. From phone call chats to joint outings, to sharing meals and entertaining, to adventures near and far, to helping in times of sadness and difficulties, Faye was up for it all. She was known not just for enjoying her friendships but for being a good friend as well.

Lastly, Faye loved Jesus Christ. She read her bible daily and studied the words of the scriptures. She shared her testimony of the Savior whenever she had the chance. She was a member of Lynwood Baptist Church in Cape Girardeau.

“ So saddened to hear of Linda’s passing. I was involved with Linda through Avon for several years and became good friends through the years. When she came to Anchorage we would get together for lunch and shopping. She would always attend church with me. I will miss those times together. She was a great lady.
