“ Linda was my cousin (I am Fred Farrow's daughter). I moved from Jackson to East Peoria, IL many years ago. Unfortunately I do not remember ever meeting Linda. We did connect on Facebook several years ago and she sent me a beautiful crocheted Christmas doily that I put out every year and think of her. That was such a special thing for her to do. It will always remind me of Linda and how sweet that was of her.

“ Aunt Linda was a very kind loving woman. Her and Uncle Marvin would say I was there first experience of taking care of a child since they babysat me after only being married a couple of years while my mother Sandra was at work. My deepest condolences to all of the family. She will be deeply missed. Love you Aunt Linda.
