

Linda Louise Williams

January 28, 1948 - December 5, 2025

Linda (Hodge) Williams, a devoted family woman, compassionate nurse, and faithful servant of the Lord, passed away peacefully on December 5, 2025, at the age of 77, surrounded by her loving family.

Linda was born on January 28, 1948, in St. Louis, Missouri. She carried a spirit of selfless giving throughout her life. Her professional calling as a home health nurse spanned several years, where she offered comfort, dignity, and tireless care to the elderly members of her community. Her patients and their families were blessed by her gentle touch and immense empathy.

Above all, Linda's life was a testament to her profound love for her family. She devoted her life to her loved ones, creating a home filled with warmth, acceptance, and unconditional support. Her deep faith was a cornerstone of her life; she loved the Lord with all of her heart, finding joy and solace in listening to praise and worship music.

Linda found pleasure in simple, meaningful moments. She loved to relax by watching her favorite show, Little House on the Prairie. A true friend and confidante, Linda was always available to listen or talk, and her home was a welcoming haven. She always had an open door and a pot of coffee ready, making everyone who entered feel instantly cherished.

Linda's legacy lives on through her loving children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, all of whom will cherish her memory.
