“ 20 years ago, as a young mom, living on my own for the first time, I was very blessed to have a neighbor like Mr. Lonnie Pearson. He saw that I needed help and would mow the yard for me, even though he knew I couldn't afford to pay him. You could tell he genuinely cared about his neighbors, as well as the neighborhood he lived in. His selfless act of kindness has never been forgotten and will continue to be paid forward. Thank you Lonnie, you will be missed!

“ The pain of losing someone you love is something that we will never get use to because God's Word refers to death as 'the last enemy.' May your family find comfort as I have in knowing that our loving heavenly Father promises us that very soon he will have our enemy 'brought to nothing.' (1Corinthians 15:26) What a wonderful day that will be!
