“ Absolutely an angel! One of my very few; absolute BEST (true) friends in life. She was a gift from heaven! I think about her often, and have been dreading this...

It has a divine privilege to have been blessed with having met her over 17 years ago, getting to have her unconditional friendship, and spending ANY times with her. Such a smart, strong, unconditionally accepting, SPIRITUAL, and loving person! One of the best people, anybody could ever know! Peace and love, to all of her family and loved ones!

Bert is and will always be one of those people that causes me to believe that there are truly angels among us. She was always a positive person.. I remember her returning to work wayyyy to soon she still had in the drain tubes for christ sake but she did. they will get what's coming to them for sure for that. Whenever I seen her after that she always was so sweet and positive and always a lady. She loves and honored her mom too.
