

Lynn Moore

June 15, 1948 - June 22, 2024

Dorcas Lynn Moore (nee McPheron), 76, passed away at home in Cape Girardeau, Saturday, June 22, 2024, in the company of loved ones, after a short battle with cancer.

Lynn was born June 15th, 1948, in Columbia, Missouri, to Ray and Dorcas McPheron. She grew up south of Wichita, Kansas, and graduated from Derby High School.

She attended Southeastern Illinois college.

July 3, 1966, she married Dan Bedwell, who preceded her in death.

September 3rd, 1988, she married Curt Felton, who also preceded her in death. February 14th, 2022, she married Dave Moore.

Her devotion to family, which included her chosen family of friends, and her family of churchgoers at First Baptist Church of Scott City, was most joyously expressed in her teaching of children at the church, and the close bonds she forged with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. The closeness of her enduring friendships stood as an example to those who knew and loved her.

Her love of purple hippopotamuses will bring a smile to the lips of those who remember her. She was known for giving as she could to all she could and treasuring the love she received.

She worked as a bookkeeper and a caregiver for many years. She spent time in Japan, and then Denver, Colorado, before moving to the region of southeast Missouri and southern Illinois and spent the last years of her life in Cape Girardeau. She volunteered at Options for Women in Cape Girardeau and the Nutrition Center in Chaffee.

She is survived by her husband, Dave, her two children Derek Bedwell (Angela) and Deborah Ousley (nee Bedwell) (Kris), brother Marty McPheron (Denise), and two stepchildren Charles Moore (Jennifer) and Patrick Moore.

She is also survived by nine grandchildren: Curtlin Watkins (Nick), Christopher Owens, Hannah Bedwell, Ethan Bedwell, Lauran Bedwell, Isaac Bedwell, Miranda Wehmeyer (Kale), Nye Moore (fiancé Clara), and Chloe Shelton (Jacob), eight great-grandchildren, and twelve nieces and nephews. We love you, Lynn, and you will be greatly missed.

“ Aunt Lynn,

You will be greatly missed by all of those that loved you, including me! You were always an ear to listen and a hug when needed and definitely a laugh at the best of times! I will always cherish the road-trips with you, mom and Linda and the nights of gathering around the table in Harrisburg with all of “the group” just sitting and laughing! Enjoy your long awaited reunion with loved ones of the past!

I love you!

“ I remember that she was so pleased that I was going to help her with teaching Sunday school. We talked often about the kids and teaching together. We often of the same mind. We became such close friends.
