“ What wonderful memories I had with my grandma Kay!! When I was growing up we would travel to see them several times a year. I would be so excited to go and never wanted to come back home! Every time I came she would make my favorite cake(cinnamon streusel) and would have a slice waiting for me when I came through the door!! When I was young she would play games with me and took me fishing! As I grew older, we always had fun shopping together! I miss our walks and long talks together. She always had the most gorgeous tree at Christmas and her home was beautiful! Thank you for all the wonderful memories! I will cherish you forever in my heart.

“ Kay has always been part of the Huckstep family and met her dear Ray through Mom and Dad(Gene and Betty Huckstep). What fabulous times they all had together! Mother and Kay were “shopping machines”, and loved to go places together, eat lunch out often, and decorate their homes! Kay was a young, fun, beautiful lady we will never forget. God Bless you all, Scott, Steve and families.
