My mom attended for several years

I was three years old

That led to us attending Cape Bible

Mrs Call was my Sunday School teacher for many years growing up

She was a force of nature in my life

I owe her a debt

My Sunday afternoons in her house

Roger I am sorry for your loss

“ Every night I still put my wedding rings in the ring holder Margaret made for me, so I think of her often, even though I haven't seen her in three or four decades. And we still have "glass baby" that Margaret made for my firstborn, DanaClaire.

Just for a smile, how many of you remember the blue plaid fabric on the walls of their cabin by Lake Egypt?

Margaret Call was a wonderful, generous, godly woman who invested in the lives of others and the Kingdom. Her life is certainly worth celebrating. My condolences to her family.

“ To the Call Family, especially Roger, I wish to express my condolences. I have warm thoughts of how kind your Mother was back in the days beginning when we all lived on Grandview Dr. While you will miss her, what a wonderful celebration of life. These years have passed quickly and soon we will all join again eternal in the heavens. I hope you are doing well Roger. At 75 I may have retired for my fifth and last time. God bless.

“ I send wishes of comfort to an old friend, Roger, in this time. I remember Mrs. Call from many, many years ago as a nice and kind woman. I offer to the family the thought that she is not really gone from you. She has simply gone ahead.

In sympathy,

Walter Lamkin

Dearest Grammie, You were a wonderful mentor to me. You taught me about God's Word, Love, Honesty, and how to Love our Husbands. You were a second grandmother to Scott and Renee'. I think of you so often. We laughed, made dolls, and cooked. I still quote the things you taught me. When things were sad you would say, "We are not to be happy here, this world is not our home". I will always Love You and PaPa Daddy. I'm certain Jim was glad to see you. Love, Brenda Harper

“ Roger,

I remember your mom as one of the sweetest people I ever knew. I remember once when we were young-uns and were headed out one brisk March morning for an adventure. She made us these awesome peanut butter and jelly sandwiches, packed our lunches in little brown paper bags and even put our names on them! Another time, we were playing monopoly; it was 3 in the morning and your mother gently called down to us and said something like, "Boys, better call it a night, remember you have big plans for tomorrow." She was special.
My sincerest sympathies.
