“ I'm so sorry for ur loss Pat, Jesse and all of ur family!! I wish I could've come to her funeral today but this cold weather has really got my hip hurting bad and I can barely get around today! Margie was one sweet lady! I, too, was one of her "kids" down at Maple Ave. She lived a long, great life because of her great family, all her friends and her tons of "kids"!! She sure was a popular Mom around there. It's no wonder why my Mom, Pauline Taylor, asked Margie to stand up for her when she & Dad got married back in the 1940's. She accomplished so much in her lifetime which kept her busy as a bee!! She always had a smile on her face and a big hug for you when she saw u!! I loved it when she called me a couple of months ago just to talk and see how us "pretty Taylor girls" were doing. We shared some memories and laughs and I'll always remember that call for the rest of my life!! What a great memory to hang on to!! RIP Miss Margie!! You will sadly be missed by many!! Love u sweet lady!! Keeping ur family in my prayers!!

“ Margie and Bud were backyard neighbors when I was growing up in Cape Girardeau. They were such good friends to my parents! She always welcomed a visit from our dog “Susie” would would run straight from our back yard to Margie’s back door to see if she was sitting on her patio! I am grateful for their friendship with our family.”

“ I always had to stop at Aunt Margie's house when I was younger and out bike riding with friends to get a drink of water from her. For some reason, her water was the absolute best and most delicious. I think she added the extra ingredient of "love" in it which help me make it through the day. Even as an adult, I had to stop by for a glass of water (not really) so we could visit with Aunt Margie. She is a special lady and enriched the lives of those around her.
