Margie Marie Waldrup, 95, of Cape Girardeau, passed away Sunday, April 30, 2017 at The Lutheran Home. She was born April 17, 1922, in Cape to the late Dewey and Emma Kirchhoff Reynolds. Ray Waldrup and Margie Reynolds met at the Marquette Hotel where Ray was a bellhop and Margie was a switchboard operator and secretary. They were married September 6, 1942 in Fort Riley, Kansas. Margie and Ray had been married 70 years 9 months when Ray passed away June 10, 2013. Margie and Ray, along with their two sons, were charter members of St. Andrew Lutheran Church.

Margie had a great love for family, cooking, reading, travelling, and music. Her family enjoyed great meals and desserts, and she took joy in recreating food she had in restaurants. She played keyboard in bands, the Golden Slippers and The Bob Rosenquist Band to name the most recent. She also played piano for the Missouri Veterans Home and The Lutheran Home while she was still in good health, often joined by Vince Seyer as vocalist. In her travels, she had the opportunity to play with wellknown bands and in interesting venues.

Also, Margie had a wonderful sense of humor. Donna called her "My Little Joan Rivers" for the witty and comical things she would say.

She was preceded in death by a son, Clayton Mark Waldrup; her parents; her brother, Howard Reynolds, and her sister, Delores Reynolds Estes. Margie is survived by her son, Lonnie Waldrup and daughter-in-law, Donna Waldrup, of Kelso, Missouri; a granddaughter, Bridget Waldrup Benson and her husband, Daniel, of Yankton, South Dakota; and three great-grandsons, Collin, Cayden, and Parker. Also, Margie is survived and loved by many of her extended Kirchhoff family who she always held close to her heart.

“ I got to have Margie as a friend such a short time in my life and enjoyed every minute of it. She and Ray was my next door neighbor at Ramsey Creek. Rather it be sharing a cup of coffee in the morning or sitting on my front porch having a conversation she always made me laugh. She like to talk about her family and especially her granddaughter Bridget who she was so proud of. I love to sit out in evenings and listen to her play the piano. She will be playing it in heaven. Your family is in my prayers.

Your friend Marie Robert
