“ My condolences to the family. Psalms 37:29 says: "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, they will reside upon it forever" so in order for our loved ones to live forever, they will have to be resurrected, so soon we may see our loved ones again doing what they loved and we enjoying them again.

“ I am sorry to learn of Mrs. Edwards passing. We were in St. Louis and unable to attend her visitation or service. We were her neighbors on Mississippi Street from 1974 - 1982. After our son Tom was born in 1977, she babysat for him regularly even after we moved from Mississippi to our current home off Mount Auburn. Over the years, we continued to visit her several times a year. In fact we visited her in June shortly before she became ill. We did not learn of her illness until we started to visit her in September. We were told by a family member that it might be best not to visit her at the Lutheran Home as she would not know us. She and my mom often spoke by phone for hours as both loved to talk. After mom moved to Cape and lived at Fountainbleau, they called each other often and enjoyed talking to each other. When younger, our son Tom and Mrs. Edwards gandson Shawn often played together. During our visits, she often talked about Shawn and missed seeing him as often as she did when he was a boy. She will be greatly missed by our family.
